

LUNCHMEAT & LIFE LESSONS

Mary B. Lucas Speaker Testimonials

When John Bichelmeyer talked, people couldn't help but listen. He was witty, wise and welcoming.

Looks like those who have read Lunchmeat & Life Lessons or heard the Butcher's Daughter, Mary B. Lucas, in her media interviews, workshops and keynote speeches can't help but listen themselves...and comment on the inspiration and impact of the Butcher's Wisdom in their own lives.

Here's what a few of them have to say:

"Mary, you were such a hit! You had an excellent rating by our members who attended. Check out a couple of the responses we heard below.

"Mary Lucas' presentation was inspiring. She gave one of the best presentations I've ever heard. I LOVED the message and receiving the book. This is one I will remember. I very much appreciated this program. The only problem was a lack of Kleenex!"

"A stand out! I enjoyed Mary Lucas' presentation."

Far and above...again, thank you."

"Most of us have read a really great book and when the movie came out we were disappointed because it wasn't anything like the book. Not this time, the show was just as good. I am changed for the better because I was able to attend. One of the measures of success in your life is the people you meet and the books you have read. This was like a 'two-for-one sale' for me. Just a word of advice: this book reads like a two-hour conversation and the ending is there before you realize it. Oh yeah, put a box of tissue next to you because unless you are devoid of emotion you're going to need it. "

“I have attended many seminars but this one would have to rank in my Top 5 list. Mary was sensational and really spoke to me. What talent and enthusiasm for life! We will all be watching to see her career take flight! Thanks!”

“Your presentation yesterday resonated within me in so many different ways. Every once in a while you meet someone, or run into an idea that very gently reminds you of what you're all about. That is what you did for me. I walked into work this morning with renewed purpose and focus, and a renewed commitment to bring more love to the workplace.”

“Fabulous evening! It was heartening to hear how the book has already caused some of our members to take action using a “Life Lesson.” I fear we may have rendered ourselves spoiled for future meetings, as it was indeed a fun experience to discuss with the writer first hand.”

“I met you at the Greeting Card Association meeting. Your presentation was the highlight of the conference for me. That evening we had our formal GCA dinner and I brought up your speech and we all jumped in to share some of our favorite lessons learned from your father. Up until that point it was typical dinner conversation. From that moment on, each of us became very animated, jumping over each other to fill in any gaps in the story. It was interesting to see how passionate the conversation became. Since that time I cannot tell you how many times I have pulled out and referenced your book and I will now be getting copies for many of the folks I work with.

Thank you for such a great presentation!”
